CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

March 10, 1967

The BULLETIN

REMINDEES

There will be two showings of the film, "Becket," today - the first at 8:45 and the second at 7:30. The ASB is sponsoring a coffee hour after the evening show.

The Orange Show and its two Fine Arts exhibits continues through the next two weekends. Dr. Robert Harrison will be giving the guided Gallery tour of the Juried Art Exhibit at 3:00 on Saturday, March 11.

VISITORS ON CAMPUS

Members of the Del Rosa Grange, Number 711, visited the campus on Tuesday morning. They presented a check for $100 to the Student Loan Fund of the College Foundation.

LIBRARY NEWS

San Bernardino Valley College Library is in the process of changing from the Dewey Decimal System to the Library of Congress classifications. Transfer students in the future will be spared this adjustment when they come to this campus.

WALL TRIUMPH

The Softball game between Freshmen and Sophomores last Sunday resulted in a 15-1 victory by the Sophomores.

WEEK-END WELCOME

Miss Linda Ruff, a sophomore from Redlands, has been hired by the College to greet visitors at the campus on week-ends.

CONGRATULATIONS

Best wishes to Margaret Coen (Accounting) on her recent marriage. She is now Mrs. Edward Laird and your Directory should be corrected accordingly.

TRAVELLERS

Joseph Jerz (Personnel) attended the annual Western Regional Conference of the College and University Personnel Association held in Sacramento Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Leo Kreter (Music) and Shirley Hine (Publications), with their respective spouses, attended a conference of Danforth Associates at the Ojai Valley Inn this past week-end. Dr. Carl Rogers from the Western Behavioral Institute in La Jolla gave four lectures relating to the personal element in college teaching.

Dean of Students Kenton Monroe attended the 75th Anniversary Convocation of La Verne College Wednesday, and participated in the academic procession as a representative of President Pfau.

President Pfau is recruiting in the snowy East all this week.

Doyle Stansel (Placement and Financial Aids) participated as a consultant on the California State Scholarship and Loan Commission's financial need analysis team this past week at Pomona College.

Joseph Thomas, James Urata and Ben Adams (Executive Dean's Office) attended the 1967 Annual State College Conference on Campus Development for Executive Deans and Building Coordinators. The conference was held March 8 and 9 at the Chancellor's Office. Dean Thomas presented a paper on a proposal for carpeting our library-classroom building.

PUBLIC AND PERSONAL THANKS

To Dr. Kreter for a very enjoyable "Sonata with Lunch."

To the Physical Plant Department for a bench where the secretaries can eat their sandwiches out of the public eye.

To the ASB for providing the opportunity for coffee and conversation after the showing of "Becket" tonight.

HIGHER EDUCATION IN CHICO

The Associated Students of Chico State College have sponsored a series of lectures, discussions and programs to consider the nature and processes of higher education during the week of March 6 to 10, and it has been proclaimed by the Mayor of Chico as Higher Education Week. The celebration of Founders' Day - Chico State College was founded in 1887 - was included in the week. Departments and divisions were invited to hold informal discussions between students and faculty examining departmental goals, organization of the curriculum and other areas of mutual interest.
